

LUME INSTITUTE
presents:

parent
cafés

The Joy of Play Series

connect with parents and strengthen our community

what: Build relationships and engage in conversations with other parents. We will focus on the following topics: parenting, community support with social connections, and emotional development. All are welcome, especially parents with children birth through 8 years.

where: Flance Early Learning Center 1908 O'Fallon Street 63106

how to register: Contact Roxeanna Steiner, 314.469.9805 x143

session includes: child care, dinner, raffle drawings, and bus passes if needed

when: Thursdays from 5:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Balancing My Life (work, school, play) - July 14
Increase resilience and knowledge of child development

Fun with Family - August 11
Support emotional development and social connections

Engaging in Community Play - September 8
Find concrete support and social connections in the community in partnership with:

PROJECT
LAUNCH

